Rome, Florence & Tuscany

Benvenuto! Welcome to Italy!

All roads lead to Rome..and its endless wealth of culture, history and beauty! In the ancient world, Rome would be called 'Caput Mundi', the top, the head, the capital of the world. The romantic atmosphere of La Citta' Eterna (the Eternal City) will influence all who fall under its spell and leave ever-lasting memories. Turn any corner, and you will find yourself in a hidden piazza or a narrow cobbled street, gazing at marble fountains, flower-decked balconies and secret courtyards. And amongst the incredible landmarks, such as the Roman Forum, the Vatican Museum and the Colosseum (to name just a few), you can expect a vast array of shops and markets: from haute-couture designer labels to small antique shops, from mouthwatering food and wine boutiques to leather specialty stores: there is truly something for everyone!

You will discover, in a luxurious 14th century country estate, a week-long stay that will finally put your mind and body at ease: take a healthy walk through an ancient village and discover its art, enjoy a meal of local home-made specialties paired with fine wines and views of peaceful landscapes. Walk the same historical streets where Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, among many others walked as you explore Florence with a local guide, including a visit to the world's largest collection of Renaissance art: the Uffizi Gallery.

Solitary farm houses, Medieval villages, ruins of ancient castles, rows of vines, olive trees, and cypresses make Tuscany the most admired region of the Italian peninsula. You'll have the chance to try the world-renown local products: famous wines, extra virgin olive oil, cured meats, aged Pecorino cheese, colorful hand-painted pottery, olive wood crafts, and much more. You'll be able to connect with what truly makes this a special place: the locals.
